🟠 F for sex? (minor)

You got an F for sex?

Throughout my life Person A told very coarse jokes casually
While watching TV "Men have three legs" - I am not the most pious person but I really hate coarse jokes or comments made randomly (especially from parents)
While Intrauterine insemination (인공수정) ..... When we were discussing 인공수정 of the Ji-Hyun (the cousin who randomly texted me and never wrote back for several decades) SEE REFERENCE HERE "흔들면 안되겠네?" She shook her bottom while sitting in the front seat (mimicking the sexual act) and everyone became dead silent. I was so embarrassed and and wanted to hide inside a hole • Although unrelated, a stranger thing happened: the eerie silence (that mannequin state fell over everyone - just like in the dorm weekend state where everyone stopped talking, or even reacting to anything like in a trance state)

I believe this was after I told Person A of my first experience which was unconsented - yet she gave no advice or comfort for what I experienced.
Just a cold, "did it hurt?" The subject matter didn't resurface afterward as I live with the pain, yet she continued to tell coarse jokes (not considering what my experience)

And I realized later through the script (that this "joke" may have indicated how I may have gotten an "F" for sex from the person mentioned in the contract

- I think to myself, I am not an escort (I wouldn't mind being one) or have been taught how to have sex. That's not something people are taught.
- So, i just thought it was really mean that Master Mind would laugh

(typical characteristic of a monologue is (they say a certain phrase, statement and) that phrase is repeated for several days in a row at a similar time of the day for 3-4 times (maximum)
